Authorization for the Dissolution of the Cumberland County ARPA Advisory Committee

Background and Purpose of Request:

Requestor: [Sandra Warren, Compliance & Audit Manager, Executive Department]

On September 31, 2021, County Commissioners approved the creation of the Ad-hoc ARPA Advisory Committee. The mission of this committee was to ensure Cumberland County conducted a fair an open process by which Community members of Cumberland County could receive ARPA funding. The primary function of the AAC included reviewing funding applications and making recommendations to the County Manager, and County Commissioners regarding the use of County ARPA funds. With the conclusion of the open application process and the program having obligated all of its external funds the AAC has fulfilled its role and concluded its duties.

Committee duration: Unless otherwise extended by County Commissioner, this ad hoc Committee shall dissolve on March 19, 2024.
